When a community rallies together, everything is possible.

Since its inception in 2021, the When Pigs Fly radiothon has raised more than $96,000 for Children's Health Foundation of Vancouver Island's new facility in Campbell River. Q̓w̓alayu House, next door to North Island Hospital, provides comfortable, safe, and affordable accommodation to north Island families who must travel to Campbell River for maternal and pediatric health care.

Join us as a sponsor to receive valuable promotion and recognition throughout our live broadcast, on the radiothon website, and across multiple social media platforms.

With your support, together we can increase access to health care for Island kids and families. Please join us!

What your sponsorship makes possible.

Children's Health Foundation owns and operates Jeneece Place in Victoria and Q̓w̓alayu House in Campbell River, accommodating families from across the islands who must travel for their child's health care. The Foundation also provides direct financial support to families with children who need specialized equipment or need to travel to health care appointments through our Bear Essentials program.

In 2022, Children's Health Foundation's islands-wide programs, Jeneece Place, Q̓w̓alayu House, and Bear Essentials supported families from...
